The flowers I used, <sup>I</sup> watch & love are mostly dead, & all the open gardens are trodden into dust but in craggy nooks, & aloft in the high fenced conservatories a thousand of the fairest & dearest still dwell safely.

Pah, Pah, Shuffle Shuffle, Crunch crunch I hear you all on the sidewalks & sandbeds, plodding away, hoping in righteousness & heaven, & saying your prayers as best you can,
Above the sand, beneath the fog & fenced by the lake & the marshes

Heaven helps you all I give you ice & granite
